OTHER REASONS OR FURTHER EXPLANATION:

The Court's findings and reasons for ordering detention, including its consideration of the factors listed in 42 U.S.C. § 3142(g), were stated on the record at the October 26, 2022 hearing and are fully incorporated by this reference. The Court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that there is no condition or combination of conditions which will reasonably assure Defendant's appearance. This evidence was discussed on the record in support of the Court's reasoning, and includes, but is not limited to evidence that Defendant: (1) repeatedly lied to the U.S. Government in an SF-86 form (seeking secret security clearance to work for the Department of Defense in a diplomatic, overseas posting) and in interviews regarding his dual citizenship, his Taiwanese passport, his foreign phones, his ties (including his parents and a fiance), business dealings and travels to Taiwan and about his having a bank account there, later claiming that he "forgot" that he had spent 11 months there during 2020 and 2021; (2) maintains an Ohio drivers license with an Ohio address on it, despite living in Michigan for the past 10 years; (3) has no ties to this District, but has significant family ties to other states and to Taiwan and Canada; (4) has strong incentive to flee this District; (5) has enhanced knowledge of U.S. Navy technology and undisclosed contacts with and payment from personnel at a Taiwanese naval base while working for the U.S. Government; (6) lied to Pretrial Services about his continuing dual Taiwanese citizenship; and, (7) said he would "do anything for Taiwan" despite his naturalized U.S. citizenship and alleged renunciation of Taiwanese citizenship. Defendant appears to be a pathological liar who cannot be trusted to give his word on a bond or to abide by the Court's instructions, including remaining in this country or District. Taiwan does not have an extradition treaty with the United States.

Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
